

The picture is right, the saying is true... "We Go to Church... Do You?" God has set the solitary in families, so that each could help the other do better than he could do alone. We sleep as families, we eat as families, we play as families, we work as families. That means we live as families. Children will find "church going" easy if they have the family as company.

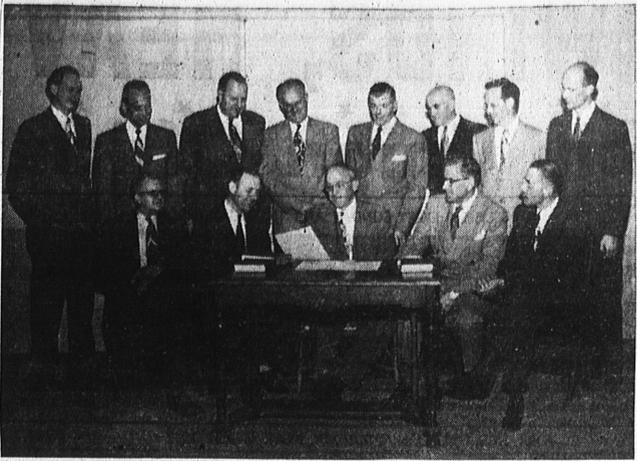

"We go to church" for our own sakes. We want to live nearer to the ideal. Just as the soil grows sour and barren without sunshine, so must the human heart have its heaven, if it is to keep sweet and rich and productive of good. At church we bow together before the God of forgiving grace, and tell our sins to Him. The good family on the earth may be the unbroken family in Heaven. "We Go to Church... Do You?"

See You in Church TODAY!

HEADS FUND DRIVE . . . 11-man committee is heading up the coming fund drive to raise $85,000 for an educational unit at the First Methodist Church of Torrance. Shown here are (seated left to right) Charles Mullen, Rev. John Taylor, Chairman Earl Robinette, Marvin Schwab, and Marvin Heibert. Standing are Art Sclaff, Earl Miller, Jack Stock, Ralph King, Robert Reid, Grover VanDeventer, Les Foster, and Morris Ransom.

BEST WISHES . . . Carl Warner (left), superintendent of the maintenance and utilities department of Torrance Works of Columbia-Geneva Steel, presents retiring chief electrician Jack Keefer with a scroll bearing best wishes from all management employees at the local plant. Keefer retired this month following 24 1/2 years of continuous service with the United States Steel Co.

FAREWELL . . . Chief Ecclesiastical Jack Keefer presents his farewell talk to members of the Management Club of Columbia Steel at its November meeting at the Palms Verde Country Club. The meeting was dedicated to Keefer, who retired this month.

TOT DROWNS IN POOL, RESCUE EFFORTS FAIL

There will be no birthday celebration for little Ronald Harter, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harter, 51, Portuguese Bend Rd., Rolling Hills, next month. Effort to massage the tot's tiny heart back into action after he had fallen in a swimming pool at neighbor's home failed Wednesday.

Ronald would have been three years old in December. He had been warned repeatedly not to go near the pool alone, and had always complied until Wednesday.

The lad wandered away from home about 3 p.m. that day. An hour later he was found floating face upward in the plunge at the nearby home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rockwell 1 Ranchero Rd., Rd.

When inhalator reviving attempts administered by a county fire department rescue squad failed, Ronald was speeded to the San Pedro Community Hospital, where a chest incision was performed by a doctor who lives near the Harter's.

The physician said the boy had a bruise under the right eye, indicating he may have struck his head as he fell into the pool. The doctor estimated he had been dead about 30 minutes when found by the Rockwells as they returned home.

Besides his parents, Ronald is survived by a brother, 13, and a sister, 7.

Yule Trimmings Due on Sartori, El Prado Soon

Torrance will sparkle with $2,000 worth of Yule trimmings this Christmas, according to Frank Dominguez Jr., chairman of the decorations committee.

Thirteen scroll garlands of green and silver aluminum, with lighted stars suspended, will be strung high over Sartori and El Prado Aves. between power poles.

Scrolls will be lighted not later than Dec. 3, and will be illuminated each night through the holiday season until Jan. 2 by courtesy of the City of Torrance.

Jones Decorating Co., which provided the service last year, has been awarded contract for the trimmings.

Church Club Celebrates Its Second Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Club of the First Lutheran Church celebrated its second anniversary last night in the church parish hall at Acacia and Sonoma.

The club has extended an invitation to all couples of the church to join for a social evening once a month. Those interested should contact Mrs. Neal at Torrance 1688-M.

AUTO OWNERS ROBBED OF FENDER SKIRTS

Fender skirt thieves cleaned up Tuesday night, as two separate lootings were reported to Torrance police.

Marvin Parks, of Gardena, said his auto was victimized while it was parked at the National Supply parking lot. And R. K. Hinkle, of 20922 Brighton Ave., told police he lost a pair of skirts from his car at the Bank of America lot.

Both men set a value of $12 on their fender pants.

Church Needs More Room, Pastor Says

A $85,000 building fund campaign for the First Methodist Church will get an active start here Nov. 28 with a kick-off dinner.

The preceding Wednesday, Nov. 25, final plans for the campaign will be outlined by Judge Otto B. Willett, general chairman, at a Loyalty Dinner for members and friends of the church in the Civic Auditorium.

Organization and promotional work for the program, which will expand church facilities to meet the needs of the rapidly growing congregation, began Nov. 3 under the local direction of Earl Robinette, leading Torrance businessman. Canvass for the proposed Educational Building is being organized and supervised by a director of the Wells Organizations, Inc., of Washington, D. C., Fund-raising Engineers, who specialize in church finance campaigns.

Mayor M. M. Schwab, chairman of the building committee; Marvin Heibert, chairman of special gifts division, and Maurice Ransom, chairman of the Teams organization, are other leaders of the canvass group, composed of more than 70 men.

Plans include construction of an educational building soon, and a sanctuary as soon as conditions permit.

Fund-raising campaign will close Dec. 13.

Job Applicants Increase as Girls Seek Work

A sizable increase in the number of women applying for work through the local office of the State Department of Employment has shot the total number of applicants up to more than 600, Mrs. Winona Ellis, manager of the office, reported yesterday.

A total of 618 residents of Torrance have applications in the office, Mrs. Ellis reports. Last month at this time, only 472 applicants were on file.

The increase in available workers is due to sizable increase in women applicants having little or no work experience," Mrs. Ellis said. "Therefore, these figures should not be interpreted as an increase in unemployment, but rather as an increase in the total labor force."

Applicants available at the office have been classified as follows:

	Sept.	Oct.	Nov.
Professional	15	26	26
Clerical	75	96	137
Sales	24	22	27
Service	62	64	99
Agricultural	22	11	8
Skilled	53	61	75
Semi-skilled	78	90	115
Labor	115	101	131
Totals	444	471	618
